Professional Experience

Assistant Professor of Music Education & Program Director, Aug. 2021 to present
Department of Teacher Education, Farrington College of Education and Human Development,
Sacred Heart University, Fairfield, Connecticut

- Develop, lead, and recruit for a new M.A.T. track in music education, leading to initial certification, as well as a five-year B.A. Music/M.A.T. Music Education program. Program compromised 14 undergraduate and graduate students one year after its June 2022 launch.
- Work cooperatively with faculty colleague in the School of Communication, Media, and the Arts, as well as professional staff (ensemble directors) in the Division of Student Life's Performing Arts Department, as well as Undergraduate Admissions and Marketing and Communications to recruit, launch, and develop SHU's new B.A. in Music, which compromised 12 majors one year after its August 2022 launch.
- Advise music education and elementary education students (ca. 30), teach most courses in music education (graduate and undergraduate) including student teaching supervision, as well as graduate courses in teacher education and undergraduate courses in music.
- Committee and service work as noted elsewhere.

Director of Music & Organist, April 2021 to present

First Church, Congregational (UCC), Fairfield, Connecticut

- Organist, pianist, and choral director for all services, serving in part-time music ministry.
- Conduct Chancel and Handbell Choirs, dramatically increasing size and quality of both.
- Select music for worship services.
- Collaborate with pastor (1), other staff, and volunteer leadership.
- Artistic and administrative leadership of the Music in the Meetinghouse concert series.
- Perform one organ recital each year.

Guest Music Director, August to December 2021

New Haven Oratorio Choir

Chair, Department of Music & Performing Arts, 2017 to 2021

Assistant Professor of Music, 2017 to 2021

Director, Music Education Program, 2012 to 2021

Interim Chair, Department of Music & Performing Arts, 2016–2017

Director of Choral Activities, 2005-2021

Lecturer in Music, 2014– 2017

Visiting Assistant Professor of Music, 2012–2014

Adjunct Professor of Music, 2005–2012

University of Bridgeport, Bridgeport, Connecticut

- Concluded my career at UB by serving as Vice President of Faculty Council as the institution faced the possibility of bankruptcy and ultimately sold to another university. Advocated for faculty while facilitating extensive communication and discussion regarding faculty needs and prerogatives, financial conditions, and administration views.
- Prevented the closure of my department, leading a successful faculty search for my successor and securing administrative commitments regarding its future.
- Was a robust candidate for tenure and promotion to Associate Professor in January, 2021 for the 2021-22 school year, until the University's pending acquisition by another institution (which does not grant tenure) led to the cancellation of this review process in 2020-2021.
- Led the successful revitalization of choral music on campus, through establishing (in 2005) and conducting the University Singers, a 26-voice un-auditioned mixed-voice chorus consisting mainly of students, but also faculty, staff, administrators, alumni and community members, and the Chamber Singers, a small ensemble consisting of auditioned students; serve as faculty advisor to the student-led Gospel Choir. UB choral organizations regularly collaborated with community arts organizations, and the Chamber Singers made their Carnegie Hall debut in May 2011, and their Lincoln Center debut in May 2013. The University Singers made their debut with the Greater Bridgeport Symphony in March 2018.
- Taught a rotation of graduate and undergraduate courses that included conducting, vocal methods, music education foundations and curriculum, ear training, music theory, music history, class piano, and applied voice; have also supervised music student teachers.
- As department chair, broadened curriculum, adding courses in music technology, world music, music business, and film, as well as music education-only sections of two ED courses.
- Worked with administration to propose and launch a B.A. in Music and B.A. in Theater to the inventory. Successfully revised music education program to include a sixth-year option.
- Completed three fully approved articulation agreements with community colleges.

- Served as academic advisor to all masters' students (MS) in music education (ca. 24) within the School of Education. Substantially increased enrollment in the graduate music education program; created a new master's concentration for in-service teachers.
- Advised undergraduate music majors (28) and theater majors (2); administer program.
- Assisted Facilities and Audio-Visual in planning a phased replacement of UB's theatrical lighting, sound, and rigging systems (assessment of current system, end-user requirements, vendor selection and bid evaluation) and a complete renovation of music practice facilities including the establishment of a recording studio.
- Worked actively with Advancement Office to fundraise in support of program goals, including $15,000 in support of new pianos and $50,000 for a perpetual endowed $2000 scholarship.
- Worked actively with Admissions Office to recruit for undergraduate and graduate programs, resulting in a record number of registered music and music education students for Fall 2020, despite a pandemic.
- Substantial committee and governance work, as noted below.

Director of Music Ministries & Organist, 2014 to April 2021; Musician, 2012–2014

Advent Lutheran Church (ELCA), New York, New York

- Served in part-time music ministry as organist, pianist and choral director, supervised the work of two part time music staff, worked with two full time professional staff and pastor.
- Selected service music, special music, and a short list of hymns and congregational song for each worship service. Taught Sunday School and Adult Education as possible and needed.
- Principal organist/music minister for 26 Sundays a year and all major feast days, serving a large, vibrant, urban, liturgical church that offered three Sunday worship services in English and Spanish, as well as a New York Times-reviewed concert series.
- During COVID-19 pandemic (March 2020 to April 2021), performed, recorded (at home), and did basic editing of all organ, piano, and vocals for music for two Sunday livestreamed worship services. Relief/substitute staff person for livestreaming back-end. Supported volunteers as they recorded special music from home.

Artistic Director

Mystic River Chorale, Mystic Connecticut, January 2008–January 2021

- Rehearsed and conducted 40-voice auditioned community choir; auditioned new members.
- Auditioned, rehearsed, and conducted a 15-voice Chamber Singers drawn from the Chorale.
- Selected repertoire for each season, hired guest soloists and instrumentalists within budget.
- Collaborated with other ensembles, including the Eastern Connecticut Symphony Orchestra.
- Worked with the Board on strategic planning, public relations, marketing efforts, budgeting.
- Created significant improvement in the quality and consistency of the Chorale's performances, and broadened community outreach and marketing efforts.
- One of five 2015 finalists nationally for The American Prize in choral conducting: community choirs division for my work leading this ensemble.
- Longest-serving director in group's 40-year history.

Steinhardt Doctoral Fellow, 2010–2014; Adjunct Instructor, 2012–2014

Department of Music & Performing Arts Professions

Steinhardt School, New York University, New York, New York.

- Served as thesis advisor for MA students in Music Education (2012–2014).
- Recipient of full four-year fellowship for Ph.D. studies.

Music Teacher

High School in the Community, New Haven Public Schools, New Haven, Connecticut, 2003–2010.

- Established a comprehensive music program at HSC, including Chorus, Jazz Band and a variety of general music offerings including interdisciplinary and team-taught courses.
- Students performed at venues including the International Festival of Arts and Ideas, Long Wharf Theatre, Shubert Theatre, and sang with a nationally known guest conductor annually.
- Prepared students for CMEA Regional Auditions and placed students in Festival each year; some students were selected to perform with the Yale Glee Club and Symphony Orchestra.
- Hosted observers and a student teacher from Yale College Teacher Preparation Program as well as teaching interns from Yale School of Music; mentored music colleagues in other buildings as requested by the NHPS Supervisor of Music.

Director of Music

St. Paul's Lutheran Church (ELCA), Bridgeport, Connecticut, 2003–2010.

- Quadrupled size of Adult Choir.
- Broadened congregational repertoire to include multicultural and bilingual music.
- Established successful concert series at little or no cost to the congregation's budget.
- Among the first congregations in the area to begin using the ELCA's new (2006) hymnal.
- Supervised improvements to historic 1876 Hook & Hastings pipe organ.

Interim Music Director
